Fair & Barn

Every effort has been made to insure the accuracy of this exhibitor handbook. However, exhibitors are cautioned that the current rules and regulations of the Jefferson County Fair, as interpreted by the Fair Board, take precedence over this listing due to the possibility of typographical error or inadvertent omission.

In the event of conflict between the general rules and the special rules governing the various departments, the special rules will take precedence.

The Board reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to the Fair. The Board reserves the right to amend or add to these rules, as it, in its judgment, may deem advisable.

1. The only ribbons that may be displayed are those won at the current year's Jefferson County Fair.
2. Exhibitors must comply with all health regulations for each department.
3. Each exhibitor of livestock and small animals are expected to keep their pens and stalls clean and sanitary. Stalls and pens must be cleaned by 9:00 a.m. each day. Failure to do so will result in a $50.00 fine. Also all animals must be fed daily, including Saturday morning. All stalls and pens must be cleaned after animals are removed. Fine will be collected by withholding premiums or withheld from market sale check.
4. No exhibits will be released before Saturday, 4:00 pm without superintendent authorization. NO EXCEPTIONS.
5. The Board of Directors and management reserve the right to accept entries after closing dates, if good and sufficient reasons for the delay are given, and reserve the right to offer classifications and premiums for any recognized breed of livestock, or other exhibit, at their discretion.
6. The management reserves the right to reject any exhibits, if it is objectionable in any way, if it requires an excessive amount of space, or if the capacity of the department has been reached.
7. All animals on the grounds must be shown in a class.
8. All animals on the grounds will be clean, fit and healthy or they will be removed from the fairgrounds.
9. Any exhibitor treating animals inhumanly will be disqualified and asked to leave the grounds.
10. Disrespect shown to any award or to any judge by an exhibitor forfeits all the awards made to him/her.
11. All 4-H and FFA youth may also enter animals in open class.
12. Market animals cannot be shown in open class. Animals shown in the market class may not be shown in any breeding class, and animals shown in the breeding animal class may not be shown in the market class.
13. Each exhibitor can only weigh in 2 animals per species for the county fair. They can also weigh in 2 animals for the state fair.
14. The animal entered in Round Robin competition will be the exhibitor's winning animal that was used to qualify.
15. Only sheep, swine, meat goats, meat rabbits and beef are eligible in the sale.
16. There will be no injections given on the grounds unless the barn chairman and veterinarian have been notified. Injections will only be given under the direction of a veterinarian
17. Livestock committee reserves the right to disqualify an animal that can not be controlled by the exhibitor.
18. Each exhibitor may only have 2 entries per class, in both the youth (4-H and FFA) and open class classes.
19. Specie chairman will assign pens by club. Exhibitors having space assigned to them will not be permitted to change locations without first having obtained permission from the superintendent of the department under penalty of forfeiture of premiums.
20. Contested weights on market animals will need to be called immediately upon leaving the scale. Animal will be returned to the scale and reweighed. No other re-weighs will be allowed.
21. If youth have a scheduling conflict with a show or the market sale, youth will need to contact the livestock

- committee between 4:00-5:00 p.m. at the Fair office on Tuesday, to make individual arrangements. If the youth does not do this their animal will not sale.
22. All animals shown in group classes must be owned by the individual.
  23. Exhibitors must in all cases be the bona fide owners of animals exhibited by them, except where otherwise specified.
  24. No straw will be allowed in the barns.
  25. Exhibitors will bring their own feed and care for their own animals.
  26. All entries are accepted with the understanding that the Fair Officials shall not be held responsible for any damage or loss that may arise to livestock on exhibition or sale.
  27. Awards will be made according to the merits of the exhibit. The judge may disqualify or award 2nd, 3rd premiums at this discretion. Special awards will be made only after the judges have agreed with the manager that such awards should be made.
  28. Any person attempting to influence the judges in their decisions in any manner will forfeit all awards and will be excluded from all competition and exhibition.
  29. No persons will be permitted in the ring during judging except the Awards Committee, the officers of the fair, and the ring stewards.
  30. Exhibitors trailers are to be parked off site or on the race track.
  31. Each open class livestock exhibitor will pay a $1 entry fee per class for dairy, beef, sheep, goat, swine, rabbit, and poultry.
  32. Open class animals will be judged 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th in each class.
  33. Animals designated for EISF Jr Market Livestock Events must be tagged and tissue sampled at county beginning weigh-in. Animals will be tagged with EISF tags.
    - A. If a tag is lost contact your county office immediately. Tissue samples will be taken, if they match then the animal will be retagged. If samples do not match, the participant will be disqualified and permanently banned from all future 4-H/FFA EISF Jr. Livestock Events.
    - B. Youth will pay $6.00 for tag and tissue sampling kit.
  33. All animals destined for the Eastern Idaho State Fair (EISF) will be included in record books, either 4-H portfolios or SAE books.
  34. ALL animals/exhibits will be declared by pre-entry. Entry forms will be available via z-suites, AET, the county website or at the 4-H office. Entry forms will be completed per specie per exhibitor. Entry forms are due July 31. Late entry forms will be accessed a $10 fee per class. All classes will be declared, those include showmanship, breeding, market, pet, and open class.
  35. All shows will begin with FFA showmanship followed by 4-H Senior, Intermediate, Junior, Novice. Following showmanship, quality classes will be begin.
  36. To file a grievance:
    - A. Submit grievance form, along with $20 fee to specie chair.
    - B. Specie chair will submit grievance to grievance committee.
  37. The judges will set the class sizes, for showmanship and quality. Judge also sets which exhibitors come back for a final drive.

Market Sale

Rules and Regulations

1. All market stock entering the auction ring must be sold. No animals sold through any other sale within 60 days prior to the Fair shall be permitted in this market show or sale.
  2. All animals entered in the Market Stock Sale must have been shown in the show ring and have received a blue or red ribbon.
  3. It is required that each 4-H and FFA member be the bona fide owner of each animal that he or she has exhibited. The County Agent or FFA Advisor will be responsible for this verification.
  4. Beginning weigh-in will be required for all market animals. Livestock will be tagged with county tags and market rabbits will be tattooed at the beginning weigh-in.
  5. Exhibitors will be allowed to sell only one animal at the market sale, with the following exception:
    - a. That all Grand Champion and Reserve Champion animals must sell. (Even in the event that an exhibitor has a Champion or a Reserve Champion in one or more species.)
  8. At the discretion of the Sale Committee any hog will be disqualified if it shows evidence of pigginess, scars, sores, bruises or blemishes that may impair the carcass.
  9. Terms of sale will be CASH.
  10. A brand inspection must accompany any market steer or market heifer sold.
  11. Sheep, beef, and goats will be shrunk 2% from the weigh in weight to determine the sale weight.
  12. A commission charge of 2% will be deducted from each animal.
  13. All market animals will be the responsibility of the youth until Saturday at 4:00 p.m. including animals that have been sold.
  14. Resale animals will be available on Saturday morning from 9:00 - 11:00. There will be a $20.00 fee added onto the animals that are resold.
  15. Checks will be distributed to kids once all monies are collected.
  16. All extra animals, (i.e. animals not going through the sale ring but were weighed in at the beginning weigh in) must have destination declared to specie chairman by the Thursday at 9:00 p.m. Extra animals that have not been declared by set times will be the exhibitors responsibility and will not go on any trailers designated by the Market Sale Committee.
  17. The Jefferson County Extension office is the middleman and will gladly answer questions. The Market Sale committee makes all final decisions and the money is distributed through the fair board secretary.
  18. Any animal that participates in a Jefferson County Fair market class is NOT allowed to show in any other quality class or county fair.
- Each market sale youth is required to show proof of Thank You given to their respective buyer. Checks will not be distributed until youth have completed this task. Youth have been asked NOT to hand out buyer thank yous and gifts the night of the sale. Please reserve this for another time.
19. The sale program will sell animals as determined by the market show placing.
  20. All blue ribbon animals will be sold prior to red ribbon animals.
  21. Species will be rotated within the sale order.

Youth and families are asked to NOT sit in the bleachers the night of the sale. Leave these seats for the buyers.
