THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF JEFFERSON

In the Interest of:

A Juvenile.

DOB:

Case No.

Rights in Juvenile Court Under the Juvenile Corrections Act

Idaho Juvenile Rule 6
Idaho Juvenile Rule 9
Idaho Code § 20-514

PLEASE INITIAL EACH RIGHT THAT YOU UNDERSTAND,
LEAVE BLANK ANY RIGHT WHICH YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND.

- _____ 1. You have the right to remain silent.
- _____ 2. An attorney will be appointed to represent you at all stages of your case unless you give up this right in writing. The attorney will advise you of how the facts and the law apply to your case and will make legal arguments to the Court. You, your parent(s) or guardian(s) may be required to repay the county for the attorney.
- _____ 3. You have the right to have a trial before a judge. If you have a trial, the Prosecutor has to prove to the Court that you are guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. If you are accused of a probation violation, the Prosecutor must prove that it is more likely true than not that you violated probation.
- _____ 4. You can question any witness who is going to testify against you, and you can call your own witnesses to testify for you.
- _____ 5. If you admit to having violating the law or are found to have violated the law after a trial, you can be placed in detention for up to 90 days for a misdemeanor offense, 180 days for a felony offense, or up to 30 days for a status offense. The Court can place you on probation for up to three (3) years. Probation conditions will be imposed to hold you accountable for your acts, protect the community, and insure an understanding and willingness on your part to behave correctly. The Court can also commit you to the custody of the Department of Juvenile Corrections until age 21.

- _____6. If you admit to a charge or are found to have committed an offense, you will be required to pay a $20.00 fee for each petition, $.60 per hour for any community service that is required by the Court, and you must pay for your cost of supervision.
- _____7. You and/or your parents may be required to reimburse (pay back) any money spent by the state/county for the cost of your care, treatment, probation fees, detention costs, or fees for any placement outside of the home.
- _____8. You and/or your parents may be required to reimburse any victim for a loss that was sustained by your actions through payment of restitution.
- _____9. If you admit to a charge or are found to have committed an offense in this county and you live in another county, the case may be transferred to the county in which you live.
- _____10. If you are not satisfied with the decision of the Court, you may appeal to the next higher court, so long as your Notice of Appeal is filed within 42 days of the entry of the decision.
- _____11. Your exercise of any of these rights shall not be held against you.
- _____12. If you have any question about these rights, ask the judge at your hearing.
- _____13. If you are not a citizen of the United States, and if you admit to or are found to have committed an offense, you could be removed from the country, excluded from entering this country, and/or denied the opportunity to obtain legal status or become a naturalized citizen.
